Monthly potlucks are a great place to meet others in the secular community. Bring a dish or (non-alcoholic) drink or a friend if you can. We'll have SHCC library books to borrow. Potlucks will be followed by Community Meetings. Come join us!

Agenda items for monthly Community Meetings should be submitted at least one week prior to meetings. Items will be added on a first come, first serve basis.

"Building a Good Life on Earth Together"

5 - 20 October 2014

Wanted: Wordsmiths

The Charleston SHCC is looking for people interested in adding content to a quarterly almanac we're planning. The almanac would contain advice and information related to the seasons, short histories and informational texts, cartoons, and quotes, prose, and poetry.

If you're interested in writing, illustrating, designing, editing, or distributing/marketing for the SHCC almanac, please join us at Panera Bread at the Charleston Town Center Mall Sunday, November 2nd from noon 'til 0400P.

We're planning on publishing the first issue in Spring 2015.

Big Things on the Horizon

Ah, fall! Our beautiful mountains are lit up by the blazing colors of autumn, it's time to snuggle into sweaters and thick socks, and the mornings have been cool enough to make you want to stay in bed just a few more minutes. Summer is at a close, and here at the SHCC we're working on planning large scale events and projects for the next year. Some of these include:

- ◆ Spring Almanac
- ◆ Inter-Faith Volley Ball Tournament
- ◆ Astronomy Day

We're looking for organized folks who are interested in working out all the fine details to make these events/projects a success. If you have skills in writing or editing, graphic design, event planning, marketing or you have time to make phone calls or hit the street, we'd like your help! Watch out for planning events and checkout our facebook page for more information! If you're interested in planning an event through the SHCC, join us at our next potluck.
