Name Change: Ongoing Discussions

Building a strong identity is essential to any organization or group of people seeking to attract like-minded individuals and assert itself as a social force. Our community has an especially challenging task at hand when deciding to identify or "brand" itself. How does one represent both our unity and our diversity in a name? It's this question that we've been discussing in our monthly community meetings. To make your voice heard, contact us or join us at the next community meeting. You can also visit our website and take the online survey.

Wanted:

Volunteers for the SHCC Street Team. Responsibilities include posting bills at local businesses. Email for more information.
