Upcoming Events

October Potluck—Sunday, October 27, 12:30pm @ South Charleston Community Center (Rec. Center), Room 2

Please join us for our next family-friendly potluck! There will be plenty of food and friendly faces. There might also be another mock-debate from the Debate Group, depending on their readiness. Bring a prepared dish or a bag of chips, whatever you can manage.

The meeting rooms are downstairs. We'll post signs directing you to our room. If you need directions to the South Charleston Rec Center, just let us know.

We apologize that due to trouble finding a new indoors location for our monthly potluck, we had to change the date, as originally announced, to the following day. However, starting in November we should be able to have a regular time and location (see below).

November Potluck--Saturday, November 23, 12:00pm @ Kanawha City Community Center

The Kanawha City Community Center will hopefully be our ongoing indoor location for monthly potlucks, starting in November (at least until the day when we have grown enough to get a place of our own!). Mark your calendars!

Don't forget to visit our website's Member Forums page, which includes places to post basically anything you want to tell the other members of our group, and read what other members have posted. Let's get some conversations started (which we can pick up in person at our potlucks!).

Wrapping Up

Humanist Quote of the Week

"To lie sleepless with pain at night, or to wake every morning and feel the return of grief, yet to get up and carry on as best one can, is courage itself." --A.C. Grayling, Meditations for the Humanist
